

FULL STACK .NET DEVELOPER

Mohamed Sayed Yousef

ABOUT ME

I'm Mohamed Sayed, and I have over 2 years of experience as a frontend developer. I am passionate about creating intuitive and responsive websites, with strong problem-solving skills honed through my participation in the ICPC competition. Currently, I serve as the HR for IEEE at Luxor University, where I continue to develop my leadership and organizational skills. Over the course of my career, I have successfully worked on a variety of projects, each enhancing my expertise in frontend development.
